5.3.1. a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity;

5.3.2. reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the charity.

6. Benefits and payments to charity directors and connected persons

6.4. A director may, in exceptional cases receive payment of money or other material benefit (whether directly or indirectly) from the charity (but only with the written approval of the Commission in advance), provided that such director shall absent himself from all meetings of the directors of the charity at which any question of remuneration is to be discussed.

- 6.10.2. The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- 6.10.3. The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- 6.10.4. The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity.
- 6.10.5. The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting.

8. Conflicts of interests and conflicts of loyalties

- 8.1. If a conflict of interests arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:

- 8.1.1. the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;
